

Past Chair of The 4 Surveying Divisions

Throughout the years, the Royal Institution of Surveyors Malaysia has played a leading role not only in setting standards for professional surveying services and performance but also developing and promoting collaboration among the surveying professions. The Institution will continue to uphold its pursuit and grow to benefit the profession, the community and the nation.