ABOUT THE SPEAKER

Mr. Henry Lee is a Mechanical Engineer in profession. He holds a Bachelor's Degree in Mechanical Engineering, first class honours, from Monash University Australia. Currently he is a corporate trainer and a project consultant in South East Asia that specialises in sustainable project management. He guides organisations and investors to achieve project financial return with long term environmental and social values. Also, at present, he is the Board Member of Project Management Institute Malaysia Chapter and External Advisory Committee of Sunway University Department of Engineering.

He has more than fifteen years of experience in project management and business development across many industries, including oil & gas, real estate, construction and manufacturing. Over the years he has worked for SME, MNC and listed company. With a track record in different business sectors, Henry Lee brings extensive experience from the corporate world and he dedicates his time now to help organisations to make profit with purpose, by placing sustainable development at the heart of project management. Besides that, he has conducted project management training programmes to Brunei Prime Minister Office the Department of Energy, local Malaysia Government Agencies and various SME & MNC companies.

Being the lead in sustainability consulting, Henry Lee has created a reliable consulting system [SUSTAINPACT], that provides best practices for organisations to start implementing sustainability in their business and investment. He has been invited as guest lecturer for Nottingham University and Sunway University, to impart the sustainability knowledge and project management skills. In addition, he has been invited as guest speaker for Jabatan Kerja Raya (Malaysia Public Works Department), PT Pertamina (Indonesia National Energy Company), Agile Leadership Summit, iProperties, StarProperty, Junior Achievement Worldwide and different educational institutions.

Besides that, Mr. Henry Lee has conducted many Leadership D.I.S.C. training and consultation programmes. The training included a very comprehensive development of teamwork, communication, interpersonal and leadership skills. He has successfully improved team competency to solve their work problems in a systematic approach, resulting in delivering great result and performance in company.

Mr. Henry Lee his personal mission is to inspire change through learning. He is well known for his practical, dynamic and lively sessions. He achieves his objectives through challenging interactive sessions with participants, role plays, simulations, video presentations and case studies, thus consistently receiving excellent feedback from participants.
